Operation Christmas Shoebox

I know it's only August-but hear me out-please! As families are getting ready to do school shopping why not buy an extra package of markers, crayons, or even socks while the sales are happening. You could even use the box from your new shoes to put in the goodies for this event! So please check out the sales and think of how you can help make a child's Christmas special!

NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

The weather has been just amazing this week! Hope you had a chance to be out and enjoy this time of year.

The seminarian Samuel Schultz we had last weekend really enjoyed his time. Both parishes were very welcoming as usual and he wanted me to thank you for making him feel so welcomed.

This past week we were able to get a few items for our St. John Bosco School. Our new principal, her husband and I filled a U-Haul truck and a trailer. As we were driving to St. John Bosco I called my awesome secretary Tina to ask if she could call some people to help unload. As we were turning into the driveway there was a huge number of volunteers to help. It was awesome!! We have a very supportive community and I am grateful.

This weekend we speak of the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the elements of bread and wine Jesus' Body and Blood are made truly present. As I spoke about last week, when we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, Jesus himself comes to dwell within us. What a great gift we have in the Eucharist.

Please pray for Taylan Paul and his parents Philip and Melissa Symons who was baptized this past weekend at our church. Have a blessed week! Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

Did you ever notice that the readings on any given Sunday share a similar theme? This week the theme seems to be wisdom.

St. Paul warns us to live as a wise person, always striving to understand the will of God. The 1st reading is from Proverbs, a book of wise sayings spanning centuries in Israel's history. Wisdom is personified as a woman who offers food and drink to the humble. Jesus also offers us food and drink, his very body & blood, to make us wise and give us eternal life! Isn't it interesting that 'wisdom' is described as female? Perhaps there is a bit of wisdom in that!? Ladies, enjoy your week! Men, we'll have to search the scriptures for a virtue to describe us...

Blessings to all! Deacon Ray
