Operation Christmas Shoebox Event

What a great time! Thank you to everyone who attended and helped pack shoeboxes! Thank you George Sawyn for sharing your gift of music with us at this event! We were able to pack 150 boxes and we are close to monetary donations to cover the cost of shipping too! Thank you to all who donated in any way to make this all happen-without your generosity this would not be possible! Thanks to you 150 children will experience a joyful Christmas! Please watch the bulletin and back of church to find out where our boxes go (hopefully the tracking works this year)!

NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

This weekend we take the time to remember those who have gone before us. We believe we are all called to be saints in heaven and we believe the souls of the just are in the hand of God. Let us continue to cherish the memories of our passed loved ones and rejoice in the promise that we will see each other again in heaven.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

This weekend we celebrate two very important days; All Saints' Day on Nov. 1st and All Souls' Day on Nov. 2nd. All Saints' Day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven. All Souls' Day is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven. Although likely billions of people may already be saints, All Saints' Day focus on known saints, those recognized by the Church. All Souls Day is for honoring all the faithful departed. As Catholics we believe the soul of a person who dies can go to one of three places. The first is heaven, when a person dies in a perfect state of grace. The second is hell, when a person rejects God's love and mercy by their choice. The third is purgatory, which is where most people go. Purgatory is necessary so that souls can be cleansed and perfected before they enter into heaven. Let us continue our practice of praying for all the souls of the faithful departed, that they may soon become saints in God's glorious presence.

God bless, Deacon Ray

Antigo Catholics say Philly pilgrimage was 'life changing'

BY LISA HAEFS | FOR THE COMPASS

ANTIGO — It started, for some, as an admittedly selfish desire to see a rock star pope, to be able to brag that "I was there" when Francis came to America.

It ended, for all, as a call to humility and a vow to work toward the betterment of their community.

Antigo sent an eight-person contingent to Philadelphia as part of the Green Bay Diocese's pilgrimage to the World Meeting of Families and Pope Francis' inaugural visit to the United States Sept. 23 to 27. They called it a life-altering experience.

"I started with a selfish reason, to see the pope," said Tom Bradley, who attended with his wife, Laurel. "I came home with a new sense of humility. This, for me, was more fulfilling than any trip I have ever made."

Joining the Bradleys on the pilgrimage were fellow St. John the Evangelist parishioners Lynne and Brad Henricks and

Fr. Charles Hoffmann, who now serves St. Joseph-Holy Family Parish in Phlox after decades at St. John's. Also on the trip were Srs. Dolores Demulling, Jean Bricco and Adele Demulling, members of the Religious Hospitallers of St. Joseph. Each member of the group came away with unique impressions.

Our full story appears in the Oct. 9 issue.

In these decades, in truth, the church has been neither insensitive nor lazy. Thanks to the in-depth analysis performed by pastors, led and guided by my predecessors, the awareness has truly grown that it is necessary to have a fraternal and attentive welcome, in love and in truth, of the baptized who have established a new relationship of cohabitation after the failure of the marital sacrament; in fact, these persons are by no means excommunicated — they are not excommunicated! — and they should absolutely not be treated as such: they are still a part of the church.

Coaching legend Dick Bennett tells NDA students to 'become like Christ'

BY JEFF KUROWSKI | THE COMPASS

GREEN BAY — Dick Bennett stood at mid-court in Notre Dame Academy's Schneider Triton Center, but the coaching legend was not there to talk basketball. While he did weave the sport into parts of his talk, Bennett's message at the Oct. 8 pep rally — featuring the Notre Dame band and pom poms — focused on faith and getting to know Jesus Christ.

"Do you recognize what a privilege you have going to school here?" Bennett asked the high school students. "You don't have to hide your faith. That gets bigger as you get older. You can talk about it. You can worship. You can say a prayer; you can debate the issues. If you were somewhere else, you couldn't do that."

Bennett explained that, in his first season coaching at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, he was almost fired for arranging for voluntary Sunday services in the locker room. He was required to attend a seminar on separation of church and state.

"If you believe in Jesus Christ, you become what St. Peter called 'a foreigner in the land,'" said Bennett, who also coached collegiately at UW-Stevens Point, UW-Green Bay and Washington State. "Have you ever thought of yourselves in that way?"

He added that believers should follow what Christ said about being called to be in the world, but not of the world. Living in a competitive world makes this difficult, he explained.

Our full story appears in the Oct. 16 issue.

5 THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

All Souls Day

PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

- 1 November is the month of All Souls. On Nov. 2, we celebrate a feast in "Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed."
- 2 The church asks us to especially pray for the souls of the dead during November and suggests visit to cemeteries during the month.
- 3 An example of praying for the souls of the dead can be found in the Old Testament in the Second Book of Maccabees: (12:42-49).
- 4 During the sixth century, the Benedictines marked a day of prayer for the dead at Pentecost.
- 5 St. Odilo (962-1049) gets credit for moving the feast to Nov. 2, at least for the monks in the abbeys of his order: the Cluniacs. It later became universal practice.

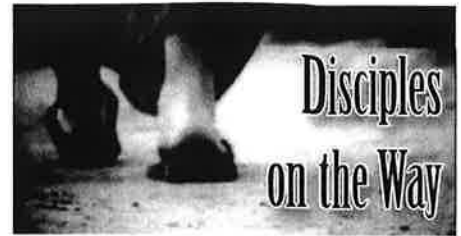

TWO INVITATIONS

Bishop David Ricken

In December, I will send to every Catholic household in the diocese an invitation to dedicate their home and those in it to the Holy Family. In addition, I will also send an image of the Holy Family to every household, along with a prayer of dedication so that we all can dedicate our families to the Holy Family. I will include, as well, some prayers that you can pray together.

In June 2016, we will be celebrating the 160th anniversary of the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I will again be sending a mailing to every household in the diocese with a beautiful image of the Sacred Heart and asking every person in the diocese to consecrate his/her life and discipleship to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Next month: Resources for your Household.

What a difference a pack of diapers makes

BY PATRICIA KASTEN | THE COMPASS

ALLOUEZ — A woman decides to choose life and has her baby. Then what?

Her baby needs diapers, at the cost of $30 to $40 for a month's supply, and the rent is due.

"We are pro-life, so we need to be helping the women after they make life-affirming decisions," said Celia McKee, Dignity of Human Life coordinator for the Diocese of Green Bay. "So we will support them with their basic needs, such as diapers. We know there are a lot of people in poverty or close to poverty that need our help. If they can't afford the basic things, we aren't doing our calling to live the corporal works of mercy."

With that aim in mind, Catholic Charities and the Living Justice Department of the diocese are working together on their first, diocesan-wide diaper drive. It began on Aug. 24 and runs through Oct. 4, Respect Life Sunday. People can drop off diapers at Catholic Charities locations in Green Bay and Appleton, as well as at several crisis pregnancy centers across northeast Wisconsin. Additionally, several parishes are holding diaper drives, including Stella Maris in northern Door County.
