NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

Feeling a little more like fall! Time to start raking up those leaves!

As we continue our journey in ordinary time we go from last week's gospel deciding which of the son's did their father's will to the tenants of the vineyard wanting everything and killing the landowner's son to try to achieve it. These parables clearly show us the wrong way and also the correct way to follow Jesus. Jesus should be the cornerstone on which our foundation of faith is built. With Jesus as our foundation we can weather any storm.

Let us keep the triplets Jacob, Caitlyn, and Cassandra, children of Christine and Joe Vandenzelen, who were baptized this past weekend in our prayers, and their families and godparents. Blessings, Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

This past week the Church celebrated a couple of "Angel Days". On Monday was the feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael (Archangels). On Thursday was the Memorial of the Guardian Angels. With these feasts we may wonder what exactly angels are. Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church says: (CCC350) Angels are spiritual creatures who glorify God without ceasing and who serve his saving plans for other creatures: "The angels work together for the benefit of us all" (St. Thomas Aquinas, STh I, 114, 3, ad 3). Thank God for angels! Let us say a prayer to our guardian angel! Blessings! Deacon Ray
