NOTES FROM FR. CARL.....

This weekend in our gospel we hear of the faith of the leper as he says to Jesus, "If you wish, you can make me clean" Jesus quickly responds, "I do will it!"

Jesus wants to give his mercy and forgiveness to all of us. We need only ask. As we enter into the Lenten season we will have many opportunities to receive our Lords grace, mercy and forgiveness. Let us pray about how we are going to enter into this season so as to receive the grace, mercy and forgiveness our Lord desires to give us. As we receive these graces we will be like the healed leaper desiring to spread the Good News to all we meet!

Blessings, Fr. Carl

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK.....

A couple of weeks ago I wrote about the stewardship of service. Last week I brought up the stewardship of prayer. Today I will discuss the stewardship of sharing. By now hopefully most of us have read the book we received at Christmas; "Life's Greatest Lesson" . In the book, there were many themes related to the stewardship of generously sharing of our financial gifts. One that sticks out to me is evaluating what we currently give to all forms of charity, then taking small steps to increase that giving, perhaps by a percent each year until we reach our goal. This week I received a letter from our Bishop. I'm assuming you all did as well. The Bishops Appeal is a great way to share our financial resources that will make a huge difference to the lives of many. Let us give a generous return to God, in all forms of stewardship, as our Heavenly Father is so generous to us.

God Bless! Deacon Ray
